Little Hollows Pasta is a restaurant on Chandos Road, Redland, where we make all our own pasta by hand. We use it to create simple and delicious dishes in our kitchen for lunch and dinner service.

Our focus is on Italian craft but using the best local and Italian ingredients we can get our hands on. We also want to minimise waste and make sure we're taking a sustainable approach to everything we do.

- This role requires an experienced CDP level chef to provide maternity cover.
- A pivotal role working closely with the Head chef, Senior Chefs and owner to design, cost and implement changing small plates and main menu dishes.
- Working and engaging with existing and new suppliers.
- Ensuring that the kitchen runs smoothly during prep and service hours.
- Some responsibility for ordering, stock storage and rotation with an efficient and controlled approach.
- Helping to run service when the head chef is not working and ensuring our high standards for food and cleanliness are upheld.
- Working with the FOH team to ensure product knowledge is correct.
- Working to specs and processes to ensure our excellent reputation is reflected in consistent high quality food for customers.

Our work environment includes:

- Relaxed atmosphere

- On-the-job training
- Lively atmosphere
- Safe work environment
